

Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy - AUP000COR-10000-00-GN-POL-0001

Blackstone Minerals Ltd (Company) has a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and is committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all its business dealings.

This Anti- Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy (ABC Policy) applies globally. To the extent that local laws, codes of conduct or other regulations (Local Laws) in any countries are more rigorous or restrictive than this ABC Policy, those Local Laws should be followed by any subsidiary operating in that country. Where a country has specific bribery and corruption Local Laws which are less rigorous than this ABC Policy, this ABC Policy prevails. The Company may, from time to time, provide country-specific directions for subsidiaries operating in countries outside of Australia.

This ABC Policy sets out the Company's requirements in relation to interactions with Officials and third parties. This ABC Policy does not prohibit interactions with Officials, rather it forbids corrupt interactions with those.

In this ABC Policy, references to the "Company" includes references to the Company and all of its subsidiaries.

This ABC Policy:

- (a) sets out the responsibilities of the Company and its management and personnel in upholding the Company's commitment to preventing any form of bribery or corruption; and
- (b) provides information and guidance to personnel on how to recognise and deal with any potential bribery and corruption issues.

1. Policy

1.1 General

- (a) Personnel must:
 - (i) understand and comply with this ABC Policy and attend all relevant training;
 - (ii) not engage in bribery or any other form of corruption or improper conduct;
 - (iii) not make facilitation payments;
 - (iv) not offer, pay, solicit or accept secret commissions;
 - (v) not engage in money-laundering;

- (vi) not give or accept items of value where to do so might influence, or be perceived to influence, objective business judgement or otherwise be perceived as improper in the circumstances.
 - (vii) obtain required approvals for political contributions and charitable donations;
 - (viii) maintain accurate records of dealings with third parties; and
 - (ix) be vigilant and report any breaches of, or suspicious behavior related to, this ABC Policy.
- (b) This ABC Policy applies to all personnel, including directors, temporary staff and contractors, and business associates of the Company.
- (c) This ABC Policy does not prohibit the giving of normal and appropriate hospitality to, or receiving it from, third parties.

1.2 Prohibition against Bribery and Corruption

- (a) The Company strictly prohibits personnel engaging in or tolerating bribery or any other form of corruption or improper conduct.
- (b) The Company's corporate values require that in all aspects of business all personnel act honestly, adhere to the highest ethical standards, and act in compliance with all relevant legal requirements. In this respect personnel must not engage in bribery or any other form of corruption.
- (c) The prohibition of bribery under this ABC Policy includes the provision or conveying of an item of value to any third party, official or family members of officials, whether directly or indirectly, to secure any improper advantage or to obtain or retain business. This means that personnel must not:
- (i) offer, promise or give an item of value with the intention of influencing an official or third party who is otherwise expected to act in good faith or in an impartial manner, to do or omit to do anything in the performance of their role or function, in order to provide the Company with business or an improper advantage; or
 - (ii) authorise the payment or provision of items of value to any other person, if it is known, or reasonably should have been known, that any portion of that payment or item of value will be passed onto an official or third party to secure an improper advantage or obtain or retain business; or

- (iii) engage, or procure, a third party to make a payment or provide an item of value to an official or third party, (or to procure another person to make such payment or provision), in order to secure an improper advantage or obtain or retain business.
- (d) The prohibition of bribery under this ABC Policy also includes the request or acceptance of (or the agreement to accept) an item of value from an official or third party either:
 - (i) intending that, in consequence, a function or activity should be performed improperly (whether by the requestor/acceptor or another person); or
 - (ii) where the request, agreement or acceptance itself constitutes the recipient's improper performance of a function or activity; or
 - (iii) as a reward for the improper performance of a function or activity (whether by the recipient or another person).

1.3 Prohibition on Facilitation Payments, Secret Commissions and Money-laundering

- (a) The Company condemns the making of facilitation payments, secret commissions and money-laundering.
- (b) Personnel are prohibited from:
 - (i) making facilitation payments;
 - (ii) offering, paying, soliciting or receiving secret commissions; and
 - (iii) engaging in money-laundering.

1.4 Political Contributions and Charitable Donations

(a) Political Contributions

The Company prohibits personnel from making political contributions to officials on behalf of the Company.

This ABC Policy does not seek to curtail an individual's freedom to make political contributions in their personal capacity.

The context of any other payments to political parties is key in determining their appropriateness. For instance, it is permissible for the Company to make a payment to attend a political function in circumstances where such payment could not be construed as an attempt to influence the political party.

If you are in any doubt as to the appropriateness of any payments to political parties, you should consult the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary before it is given or accepted or otherwise as soon as possible.

(b) Charitable Donations

The Company can only make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under Local Laws and practices. In order to ensure that donations made by the Company to charitable organisations are for proper charitable purposes, personnel must only make donations on behalf of the Company to charitable organisations previously approved by the Company and within approved financial limits.

A list of approved charitable organisations is to be maintained by the CFO and Company Secretary and provided upon request.

1.5 Interactions with Officials and Third Parties must be Compliant

- (a) All interactions with officials, third parties and business associates must comply with this ABC Policy, and the Company and personnel must not take any actions, whether direct or indirect, which create the appearance of impropriety regardless of whether there is any improper intent behind their actions.
- (b) The prohibitions under this ABC Policy include a prohibition on personnel using personal funds to undertake any interaction or transaction that is prohibited under this ABC Policy.

1.6 Documentation and Recordkeeping

- (a) As part of the Company's commitment to open and honest business practice the Company requires all of its businesses to maintain accurate books of account and records.
- (b) The Company and its subsidiaries must keep accurate and complete records of all business transactions:
 - (i) in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices;

- (ii) in accordance with the Company's accounting and finance policies; and
 - (iii) in a manner that reasonably reflects the underlying transactions and events.
- (c) It is the responsibility of all personnel to ensure that all business transactions are recorded honestly and accurately and that any errors or falsification of documents are promptly reported to the appropriate member of the management team of the relevant business and corrected. No accounts are to be kept "off the books" to facilitate or conceal improper payments.
- (d) All personnel must record items of value given or received [in the items of value register] and in expense reports and approved in accordance with the relevant expense policy.

1.7 Compliance with Local Laws Required

If Local Laws in a particular country or region, that the Company operates in, are more restrictive than this ABC Policy, then any personnel, including any business associates operating in that country or region must fully comply with the more restrictive requirements.

1.8 Reporting Violations and Suspected Misconduct

- (a) Any personnel or stakeholder who believes that a violation of this ABC Policy or any laws has been committed, is being committed, or is being planned, should report the matter immediately to the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary.
- (b) If anyone is unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery, a facilitation payment, secret commission, money-laundering or an improper item of value, or has any other queries, they should ask the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary.

1.9 Protection

- (a) The Company prohibits retaliation against anyone reporting such suspicions.
 - (b) Personnel who wish to raise a concern or report another's wrongdoing, or who have refused pressure to either accept or offer a bribe, should not be worried about possible repercussions. The Company encourages openness and will support any personnel who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this ABC Policy.

- (c) If you are not comfortable, for any reason, with speaking directly to the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary the Company has a Whistle-blower Policy which affords certain protections against reprisal, harassment or demotion for making the report.

2. Responsibility for Policy Compliance and Training

- (a) The Company's Board is responsible for the overall administration of this ABC Policy. The Board and the CFO and Company Secretary will monitor the implementation of this ABC Policy and will review on an ongoing basis the ABC Policy's suitability and effectiveness. Internal control systems and procedures will be audited regularly to ensure that they are effective in minimising the risk of non-compliance with this ABC Policy.
- (b) In addition to the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary each of the Company's subsidiaries outside Australia has General Directors and Managers responsible for monitoring and applying this ABC Policy.
- (c) A copy of this ABC Policy will be made available to all personnel via the Company's website, in onboarding induction packs and translated into Vietnamese. When identified, other ways to ensure the ABC Policy is available to personnel wishing to use it will be made available.
- (d) All personnel are required to understand and comply with this ABC Policy and to follow the reporting requirements set out in this ABC Policy. To this end, regular and appropriate training on how to comply with this ABC Policy will be provided to all senior managers and other relevant personnel for each business. However, it is the responsibility of all personnel to ensure that they read, understand and comply with this ABC Policy.
- (e) All Business Associates are required to be made aware of this ABC Policy and to comply with this ABC Policy in relation to any of their dealings with, for or on behalf of the Company.
- (f) The prevention, detection and reporting of bribery and other improper conduct addressed by this ABC Policy are the responsibility of all those working for or engaged by the Company. All personnel should be vigilant and immediately report any breaches or suspicious activity to the nominated focal points responsible for compliance.

3. Consequences of Breaching this ABC Policy

- (a) Bribery and the related improper conduct addressed by this ABC Policy are very serious offences that will be taken seriously, reviewed and thoroughly investigated by the Company. Depending on the circumstances, the incident may be referred to regulatory and law enforcement agencies.

- (b) A breach of this ABC Policy may also expose personnel and the Company to criminal and/or civil penalties, substantial fines, exclusion from tendering for private contracts, loss of business and reputational damage.
- (c) A breach of this ABC Policy by personnel will be regarded as serious misconduct, leading to disciplinary action which may include termination of employment.

4. Monitoring and Review

- (a) Material breaches of this ABC Policy will be reported to the Board or a committee of the Board.
- (b) The Board and the CFO and Company Secretary will monitor the content, effectiveness and implementation of this ABC Policy on a regular basis. There may also be independent reviews taken from time to time. Any findings, updates or improvements identified will be addressed as soon as possible.
- (c) Personnel are invited to comment on this ABC Policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Board and the CFO and Company Secretary.
